

Can't Do It Alone

by
Steven Dexheimer

TOPIC: Releasing control, unity/fellowship. In the fourth sketch of a five part series, the Castaways relate the tale of what happened when Gilligan, the Skipper, the Professor, and Thurston Howell attempt to rescue the girls from the clutches of headhunters. When the boys can't agree on one plan, they each decide to go on their own, without following Gilligan's suggestion of asking God for help. This leads to less than spectacular results. Although the girls are eventually freed from their captors, the group falls into arguments and finger-pointing. As a result, the Castaways decide to split up. However, each one soon realizes that in order to survive, they can't do it alone.

CAST: Four males (Gilligan, Skipper, Professor, Thurston Howell), three females (Ginger, Mary Ann, Lovey Howell), one narrator/voiceover.

COSTUMES/PROPS: Costumes and props are optional.

**Note: Although this sketch can be performed live, it was designed to be filmed.*